IN	WABASH COLLEGE	“All students, including international students, are eligible to compete for Wabash College merit-based scholarship. Each year, a limited number of merit-based and need-based awards are available. Applicants for financial assistance must have a complete file on record by February 1 and present outstanding academic records, high standardized test scores, and strong letters of recommendation. Since the number of scholarships is limited and our applicant pool is large and talented, only a few of the qualified applicants will be offered an award. These awards are won through competition and are renewable for four years provided the student maintains standard academic progress.” ~ Wabash College Website		27 950	10 300	48	550

WA	WHITMAN COLLEGE	Whitman College does offer scholarships to international students. Competition for these scholarships is very keen. In a typical year we offer approximately 20 scholarships from a pool of approximately 300 international applicants. Scholarships are awarded to the top applicants based upon their academic and extra-curricular achievements in secondary school and on their financial need. We do not regularly offer international scholarships to transfer students.		35 192	10 220	46	560
